ELITE EXPLORERS

Travel Disclaimers

Effective date: To be confirmed before publication

1. Role of Elite Explorers

Elite Explorers is a travel agency working with host agency Gateway Travel. Elite Explorers assists clients in selecting and arranging travel services offered by independent suppliers, including cruise lines, airlines, hotels, resorts, tour operators, and transportation companies. Unless specifically stated otherwise, Elite Explorers is not the owner or operator of those services. The Gateway Travel relationship does not imply that a travel supplier sponsors or endorses Elite Explorers.

2. Pricing and Availability

Displayed prices, offers, itineraries, and availability are informational and may change. Prices are subject to change prior to deposit. Final pricing, taxes, fees, inclusions, and availability depend on supplier confirmation and the applicable booking conditions.

3. Supplier Terms, Changes, and Refunds

Each booking is subject to applicable supplier terms, including payment deadlines, cancellation penalties, changes, and refund eligibility. Suppliers may modify schedules, ports, accommodations, or other services. Applicable legal refund rights are not waived by this notice. Elite Explorers will provide reasonable assistance within its role as a travel intermediary.

4. Travel Documents and Entry Requirements

Travelers are responsible for confirming that their names, passports, visas, identification, entry authorizations, and any health-related documentation meet the requirements of destinations and carriers. Rules can change. General information provided by Elite Explorers does not guarantee boarding or entry.

5. Travel Protection

Travel insurance or protection is strongly recommended. Coverage, exclusions, preexisting-condition provisions, purchase deadlines, and claims decisions depend on the specific policy. Travelers should review policy documents carefully and decide whether coverage meets their needs.

6. Travel Risks and Accessibility

Travel can involve delays, weather disruptions, medical issues, accessibility limitations, and other unexpected circumstances. Travelers should advise us of accommodation requests early; fulfillment depends on supplier capabilities and confirmation. In an emergency, contact local emergency services or the relevant provider.

7. Supplier Names and Trademarks

Supplier names, logos, destinations, and references on this website are used to identify travel options. Unless expressly stated, Elite Explorers is not affiliated with, sponsored by, or endorsed by any named airline, cruise line, theme park, hotel, or resort.

8. Relationship to Booking Terms

This page provides general disclosures. It does not replace the Elite Explorers Terms & Conditions, supplier booking documents, or rights provided by applicable law. If you have questions about a specific itinerary, ask us before authorizing payment or confirming a booking.
